

The second wave of H1N1 now appears to have past and things are back to normal in CHEO this week. We know that some of you had to postpone recruitment and reschedule study visits.

When booking study visits please inform parents and participants that they should cancel their scheduled visit if they have any of the following symptoms; fever, respiratory illness, diarrhea or vomiting.

Thank you for your cooperation!